

Life In Brief

Hometown: Baltimore, MD

Ethnicity: Black/African American

Marital Status: Married

Education:

- MA, American University, International Communications, 1999-2001
- BA, American University, International Relations, 1995-1999

Family:

Spouse: Peter Kusek, Global Head of Applied Research Program on Investment Climate, World Bank; two daughters

Work History:

- Head of Regulatory and Government Affairs, Global Atlantic Financial Group, 2020-Present
- Vice President, International Government Affairs, AIG, 2018-2020
- Director, International Regulatory and Government Affairs, AIG, 2014-2020
- Director, International and Insurance Regulation, ACLI, 2009-2014
- Government Affairs Specialist, Insured Retirement Institute, 2009
- International Policy Analyst, NAIC, 2005-2009
- Senior Government Affairs Analyst, Sumitomo, 2001-2005

Quick Summary

Maryland native and government affairs executive with two decades of experience in international insurance and financial policy advocacy

- Built her career advocating on behalf of insurance companies' international regulatory interests; efforts informed by advanced degree in international affairs
- As director of international and insurance regulation at the American Council of Life Insurers (ACLI), she advocated for policy positions by testifying in front of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) and the International Association of Insurance Supervisors (IAIS) on the impact of global insurance regulatory standards and potential challenges they posed to market access and competition
- Joined American International Group (AIG) in 2014 to lead their global advocacy efforts in D.C. Scott worked directly with business leaders to carry out key initiatives in AIG's priority markets
- Currently leads Global Atlantic Financial Group's regulatory and government affairs strategy and seeks to enhance its profile and be recognized as a leading voice in life insurance, retirement, and reinsurance markets

Approach and Motivations

Regulatory expert who rose to leadership roles by leveraging diverse experiences, possessing a strong work ethic, and excellent interpersonal skills

- Described as an effective team player, whose determination allows her to tackle the most technical of tasks
- Fosters close relationships with a network of influential financial services government affairs experts, insurance industry professionals/associations, international organizations, the NAIC and the US government

